Tithing

"We all know the Bible says 10% of our gross income should be paid to support the Lord in His work.

When I was a salvationist with my Saturday job, it was very easy to pop 75p in the collection.

Of course it is all relative and 10% of any amount is 10%.

However since I last tithed, my earnings have become substantial, and as I write this the Holy Spirit gently reminds me that so have my needs.

I left a difficult marriage and was in danger of losing my income, I had for the first time control over all my finances and the worry and anxiety and panic attacks this caused me was not to be underestimated, exacerbated by online banking that allowed me to watch the money drain out.

I was paranoid I wouldn't have enough money and had a very unhealthy hoarding mentality.

I was held in Gods' pavilion and in His refuge and He was carrying me. The Holy Spirit prodded me on the tithing and I replied to my shame, surely Gods love doesn't come with a bill? I reasoned with Him and said you can have what's left, just let me hoard and have a slate for my debt, which I will repay.

The Holy Spirit stayed with me and a true friend suggested it was a block to progress in my life and an end to the strife and I should pray about it. My response was more reasoning and explanation of the deal I had brokered. I went and read Malachi 3:10-11.

I then popped a CD of Derek Prince in my player and settled down to feed my spirit and the first thing he mentioned was how people tipped God, and I instantly remembered the times I'd made sure I had change for my £20.00 note or emptied my purse of change and thought that will do.

I felt shame and embarrassment and the CD was turned off.

I sat and worked it out and set up a payment for the tithe. The panic attacks and worries about money dissipated, and in all of this I am left with two thoughts. Firstly, if God does what we say He does and loves as we say He loves, if we are to trust Him and my reluctance and behaviour was about trust.... I was saying to God I trust you with my heart, my soul and my life, but not my money.

Also what if the next time you visited Sozo or the church you support and it was closed as the believers declined to support God in His work.

What do either of those statements say about the body of the Lord?

I pay my tithe with joy, love and gratitude, please join me... the blessings surpass all understanding. " Anon.

Rejection

"My wife and I listened to Pastor Marion's CD's on spirit of rejection, driving on our way to a ministry conference at a South Wales Bible School. We were both very blessed and know we were set free to receive all we did from the conference."

Living Word Bible Study Course

"Before this study course I would be reading my bible and looking at it thinking... mmmh - I don't get this.... I have now learnt how to use Strong's Concordance and how to pick out words from the Scriptures that I don't really understand and look at their Greek and Hebrew meanings... when I did this THE SCRIPTURES CAME ALIVE TO ME and I understood! It was so good."

Testimony from a recent Freedom from freemasonry conference!

"I knew freemasonry was affecting my life and that it had a negative impact on my life. What I hadn't realised was the impact it was having on my spirit and emotions. I had a huge sense of release and the release has been permanent and I have never felt that any issues were unresolved or that I had any unfinished part of the release. I was granted freedom and have continued to grow and blossom.

God has been bountiful. He continues to work in my life and He has a distinct and unique purpose that I don't understand or know, I just step forward in faith and trust".

"...If you relate to this lovely testimony from a grateful guest, why don't you book yourself a place, in faith that our mighty God has a plan for you to be fruitful and be released into the freedom and liberty that should and could be part of our life in Jesus.... Please speak to me today if you are unsure or have questions." Alan

from Living Word Bible Course

"Simon taught us how to use Strong's to see how the Holy Ghost uses a particular word for His purposes. So, when we looked up the Hebrew word for 'salvation' in the OT we discovered it was 'Yeshua', so now it is easier to see Yeshua in every page of the Bible!"

"When we looked up in Strong's how the Holy Ghost uses the Greek work 'Zoe' in the NT we discovered it always means eternal life. But in Luke 16:25, in the story of the rich man and Lazarus the beggar, it is translated 'lifetime'. This shook us as we realised afresh that if you want to have an eternal life with Jesus, you must start it in this lifetime like Lazarus and not leave it like the rich man."

"Pastor Marion taught us to use the Word to make our own prayers and declarations and if they are on our phone to text them to someone in need. I was looking at 'comfort' and the Holy Ghost being our Comforter in Vines, when I noticed how in Simeon's prophecy of Luke 2:25 he was waiting for the 'Consolation of Israel'. Consolation is the same Greek word as comfort. So, Simeon was waiting for the Comforter of Israel, the person of the Holy Ghost long before we gentiles got involved." Richard Cary
